Acupuncture involves the insertion of sterile needles into the body. This sometimes results in temporary light bleeding, bruising or swelling. In order to carry out the Acupuncture treatment, sometimes the removal of clothes is required. You will always be given privacy to disrobe and towels to cover yourself, however, you always have the right not to remove clothing if you choose.

By signing this agreement I acknowledge that I agree to comply with Belinda Eisen's cancellation policy of the requirement of at least 24hrs notice if I need to change, cancel or if I do not arrive for my appointment. If I do not meet this requirement, a 50% cancellation fee will be payable immediately.

I have read and understood the above information.
